

Apologies for the additional e mail—this section should have been included in the Newsletter sent earlier today.

In our thoughts...

We are all thinking about Finlay in Base 1 who had his appendix out at the beginning of this week.

It is good to hear that he is beginning to feel a little brighter and has eaten today.

We are all hoping that it won't be too long until he is able to enjoy marsh-mallows at Forest schools again soon.

