NEWSLETTER

21st June 2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been another fun-filled and successful week at St Andrew's. We started the week with the Witham Music Festival at New Rickstones Academy. Our children shone so brightly in their performances and we were very proud of their efforts.

All of the children enjoyed their experience at Life Expo, which was an exciting multi-media experience about the life of Jesus and his relevance to life today. Thank you so much to Barry and Ria of Reality Church who arranged this for us.

Year 4 did a wonderful job of helping at the Infant Sports Day and I very much enjoyed visiting the Year 2s at the Infant school earlier this week, to prepare them for the upcoming transition morning next Wednesday. All of the teachers are looking forward to welcoming their new classes, and getting to know the children as they prepare to move up through the school.

Our catering team have also had cause for celebration, after being praised at by the school meals advisor for their adaptability in overcoming the many challenges of serving hot dinners in our temporary accommodation. Thank you to Mrs Robinson and her team for their ongoing efforts and lovely meals!

And of course, our wonderful Year 6 children have been away on their residential adventure at Hilltop. We can't wait to hear all about it - watch this space next week for photos!

Wishing you all a lovely weekend.

From Mrs Dutaut and the St. Andrew's team.

Class Photos

The class photos were taken earlier this week, and the weather was lovely so we posed outside this year. The photographer, Carmel Jane, will email you when these are ready for viewing. Please make sure you have responded to the registration email sent on June 7th.

Eleanor's family sent in this lovely photo of her (and her armful of trophies!) as they are extremely proud of her. They tell us she has played so well in her under 10s football team this year and that she loves it so much. She has come away from her presentation with awards for her participation, most goals scored and players, player award. She now can't wait until the next season starts.

Well done Ellie – what fabulous achievements!

Lara's family tell us she received her Gymnastics certificate and badge from her Gymnastics Club last week – she successfully completed level 8 !

Great job Lara – congratulations!

Last weekend Ben was awarded 'Most Improved Player' at his football presentation. He has worked so hard and has improved so much this season. His coach called him the littlest player with the biggest kick and watching his confidence grow has been lovely.

Well done Ben, keep up the good work!
